

Continental's Donations to the South Carolina Community

Since 2012, Continental has donated more than $249,000 to community organizations in South Carolina and participated in various employee volunteer activities. Here is an overview of some of the organizations Continental supports across South Carolina.

Continental Tire the Americas CEO, Jochen Etzel presents $25,000 check to Sumter County School District on March 28, 2012.

Continental Tire Sumter Plant Manager, Craig Baartman presents $5,000 check to Operation Santa at November 2013 Start of Production Celebration.

Continental Tire Sumter Plant participated in the Tuomey Foundation 2013 Festival of Trees, which supports healthcare initiatives and education in Sumter County.

In March 2014, Continental Tire Sumter Plant donated $10,000 to the American Heart Association during the Sumter Heart Walk.

The Continental Tire Fort Mill office donated $10,000 to the Boys and Girls Clubs on October 24, 2012.

The Continental Tire Fort Mill office donates school supplies to the Indian Land Elementary School each year.

Donations from Continental to Organizations in South Carolina Since 2012:

- The Sumter Iris Festival Scholarship Fund
- The Tuomey Foundation Five Miler Race for Diabetes
- Sponsorship of the Sumter Oktoberfest (proceeds donated to United Ministries Medical Clinic)
- The Alive At 25 Program for safe driving education and prevention for high school students
- Operation Santa for needy children in Sumter community during holidays
- Lancaster County Community Foundation for children and local charities
- Lowcountry Splash for health and welfare of children in the Lowcountry
- American Heart Association for heart disease research and education statewide
- ALS Association
- Tuomey Festival of Trees for healthcare research and education in Sumter
- South Carolina Governor's School for Science and Mathematics Foundation for education statewide
- Palmetto School at the Children's Attention Home for abused and neglected children placed in Department of Social Services (DSS) education in Rock Hill
- Indian Land Elementary School for education
- Nations Ford Band Booster Club for high school students
- Anne Springs Close Greenway for community and environment preservations in Fort Mill